BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)
FINANCES
EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 10/20/71.

During October, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their present headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. The residence of RUSSELL and MARY MC DONALD, 1306-A Underwood Ave., is also utilized by BPP leaders. RUSSELL MC DONALD is the distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina, and his wife MARY is very active at BPP Headquarters where she heads the Free Breakfast for Children Program and solicits contributions from the business community. The BPP Headquarters has been without telephone service since members have failed to raise the necessary deposit for the telephone company.

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, Head of the BPP Chapter is forced to rely on receiving telephone calls at the residence of his mother OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak St., Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During October, 1971, the group ordered an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP Newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL MC DONALD.

Distribution Manager [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. The BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., contacted several black colleges in North Carolina attempting to arrange speaking engagements for BPP Chairman BOBBY SEALE in an effort to raise funds for the BPP. As a result of these efforts, arrangements were made for SEALE to speak at the Winston-Salem State University on 11/14/71, and at Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., 11/15/71. The sources report the Winston-Salem Chapter of the BPP expected to receive $900 from the fees being paid SEALE for his speeches, however, this amount was not confirmed. It is noted that the speaking arrangements for SEALE called for him to receive $1500 for his appearance at Winston-Salem State University which was to be payable by check, Stronghold Productions Company, and $1,000 for his speech at Saint Augustine's to be paid by check made payable to Stronghold Productions Company. In addition, LARRY LITTLE received a commitment from the student government officers at the School of Performing Arts, Winston-Salem, N. C., that they would donate $500 to cover SEALE'S travel expense for the speaking engagement. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program, however, sources continue to report the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food donated leaving very little if any for the children. ||

None. It is noted, however, that the BPP Chapter held an open house at their Patterson Headquarters on 10/24/71, where LARRY LITTLE spoke before the small number of guests that showed up. The open house was held in an effort to gain support from the local community. No formal speeches, however, were made by BPP members during October, 1971.

ARRESTS AND CONVICTIONS

None.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that a Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

A Detroit source had advised that the BPP Cleaver Faction underground has moved to an undiscovered North Carolina location. Contacts with extremist sources have not substantiated this allegation.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program which began on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, continues to feed approximately eight (8) to ten (10) children each day. This program is headed by MARY MC DONALD wife of RUSSELL MC DONALD. Mrs. MC DONALD is assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers. The Program is in continuous difficulty, however, as the BPP members have been eating most of the food donated for the program leaving very little for the children. BPP members have continued their efforts to raise bond money for the members of the so called "High Point Four" who are being held in jail awaiting trial. On 10/19/71, RUDOLPH JENNINGS, one of the "High Point Four", was released on a property bond signed by THOMAS WHITLEY of Tarboro, N. C. WHITLEY actually signed the property bond on 10/15/71, however, JENNINGS was not released until a proper validation of the value and ownership of the property could be made. MARY MC DONALD led a contingent of BPP members from Winston-Salem to Greensboro, N. C., and contacted Sheriff PAUL GIBSON, Guilford County Sheriff's Office, demanding JENNINGS be immediately released. Sheriff GIBSON declined to do so until the property bond was cleared through the Clerk of Court's Office. MARY MC DONALD thereafter called a press conference accusing local authorities of illegally holding JENNINGS after his bond had been posted. The remaining two members of the "High Point Four" are still in jail and BPP members have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond out the other two. This Group continues to follow their new peaceful image of community service and there has been no confrontation by the BPP and Police during the past month.

On [REDACTED] advised BOBBY SEALE of the BPP was scheduled to speak at Winston-Salem State University, a predominantly Negro college in Winston-Salem, N. C., on 11/14/71. The local BPP plans to charge $5 per ticket for everyone, including a party member, in an effort to make some money for the local and national BPP Offices.

On 10/12/71, a knowledgeable source advised as of that date student body leaders were negotiating with BOBBY SEALE's "booking agency" to get him to come to Winston-Salem State University for a speaking engagement. At that time no specific date had been set for this engagement.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that a Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

A [REDACTED] source had advised that the BPP Cleaver Faction underground has moved to an undisclosed North Carolina location. Contacts with extremist sources have not substantiated this allegation.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program started on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Ave. Approximately ten (10) children each day are being fed under this program which is being spearheaded by MARY McDONALD, assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers.

The major activities of the BPP group at Winston-Salem, N. C., centered around the trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER which began in Forsyth County Superior Court, Winston-Salem, N. C., on 9/20/71. The BPP members were represented by three American Civil Liberties Union attorneys who subpoenaed the Forsyth County Sheriff, the Chief of Police of the Winston-Salem Police Department, the Forsyth County Solicitor, and Resident Agent DAVID B. MARTIN as defense witnesses. The three defendants were being tried for charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck in Winston-Salem, N. C., which was found parked in front of what was then BPP Headquarters during January, 1971. When police attempted to search the BPP Headquarters, a shootout ensued resulting in assault and theft charges being filed against the three BPP members. Defense attorneys filed numerous pre-trial motions, including a motion to quash the indictments because the Forsyth County jury list did not contain 18-year olds and did not contain sufficient percentage of blacks. After one full week of hearings, Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG ruled in favor of the defense and quashed the indictments against all three defendants. The Superior Court Solicitor for Winston-Salem, N. C., has advised he is filing an appeal of Judge JAMES M. LONG's ruling in view of the numerous problems in reconstituting a jury selection system of Forsyth County.

BPP members have continued their efforts to raise bond money for the remaining three of the "High Point Four" who are still in jail in lieu of bond. They have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond out anyone of the other three.

There was very little activity at BPP Headquarters, Winston-Salem, N. C., during September, 1971, however, the leaders were tied up in pre-trial conferences with their attorneys and their court appearances. It is noted that the BPP members who appeared in the courtroom during the above trial were very well-dressed and well-behaved, apparently in carrying out their new peaceful image. There has been no confrontation by the BPP and police during the past month.

During September, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., operated principally from their new headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. An apartment, located at 1306-A Underwood Ave., the residence of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, is also utilized by BPP leaders. RUSSELL McDONALD is the Distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina and his wife, MARY McDONALD, works at BPP headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Ave., where she handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The BPP was able to have a telephone installed at the Patterson Avenue address, however, the telephone company refused to hook up the telephone when BPP members failed to make the required deposit with the telephone company. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, continues to receive telephone calls at 1306-A Underwood Ave. and at the residence of his mother, OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak St., Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During September, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP Newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. RUSSELL McDONALD, however, was engaged in activities at Ayden, N. C., for most of this period and the newspapers were handled by a young new member, DARRELL HOPKINS. Sources report McDONALD's absence caused a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE has been contacting black colleges in the area attempting to arrange speaking engagements for BPP Chairman BOBBY SEALE, in an effort to raise funds for the BPP. The student body government at Winston-Salem State College, a predominantly Negro school, has expressed a willingness to have SEALE appear; however, no agreement has been reached to date and LITTLE has apparently been unsuccessful in getting a commitment from SEALE to speak in North Carolina. The BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., has approached white merchants doing business in the black neighborhoods to donate money for the Free Breakfast for Children Program. They have been unsuccessful in obtaining any regular cash donations. However, several of the merchants, including the Merita Bakery which is located in a black neighborhood, have donated food. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating the food leaving very little for the children. Accordingly, approximately eight children are currently being fed under this program.

The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a monthly rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. Sources have reported that LARRY LITTLE and RUSSELL McDONALD have been depleting the meager funds of the BPP Chapter for travel expenses in connection with their contacts at Negro colleges attempting to arrange speaking engagements for Chairman BOBBY SEALE. McDONALD spent several weeks in Ayden, N. C., during a period of racial strife and also travelled by bus to a number of North Carolina cities in an unsuccessful effort to recruit new BPP members.

D. OPERATIONS

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE continues as the overall leader with HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON handling finances. [REDACTED] all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money order.

ReSFairtel 10/8/71 and CE airtel 10/14/71.

Referenced communications indicate the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem is attempting to arrange speaking dates at five black colleges in North Carolina for Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP, and that he is scheduled to speak on 11/14/71 at Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Charlotte should intensify its efforts to ascertain other speaking arrangements made for Seale. Arrangements should be made to cover all speeches by Seale, and you should attempt to obtain tape recordings through informants and established sources. The use of a concealed recording device in accordance with existing Bureau instructions should also be considered.

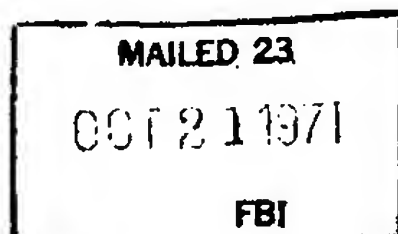

Details obtained concerning scheduled speeches should be submitted in form suitable for dissemination at an early date. Include in your LHM details regarding financial remuneration to be paid Seale.

By Informative note we advised that the United States Attorney for the Middle District, North Carolina, would request the local court to show cause why SA Martin should testify. This was coordinated with the Office of Legal Counsel. SA Martin appeared at a pretrial hearing on 9/20/71 and was questioned concerning electronic surveillance of the BPP in North Carolina and refused to answer. Hearing postponed until written instructions can be received from the Attorney General regarding electronic surveillance of the BPP. Charlotte Division has advised that none of the evidence pertaining to the State's case was the product or result of electronic surveillance conducted by the FBI and the above letter is being sent to advise the Department in order they may furnish written instructions to SA Martin for presentation in court.

During August, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., operated principally from 1333 North Patterson Ave. The residence of RUSSELL McDONALD, 1306-A Underwood Ave., is also utilized by BPP leaders. RUSSELL McDONALD is distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina, and his wife, MARY MC DONALD, works at the BPP Headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Ave., where a Free Breakfast for Children Program is being organized for the forthcoming school year. BPP members at Winston-Salem have solicited contributions of paint and other building materials which have been utilized in fixing up their new Patterson Avenue Headquarters. The new headquarters has been painted a bright blue and a large sign has been erected in the front yard identifying this residence as the headquarters of the N. C. Chapter of the BPP. The BPP has also been successful in getting a telephone installed at the Patterson Ave. address; however, LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, continues to receive telephone calls at the residence of his mother, OCHIE LITTLE, 1326 Oak Street.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During August, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered in the name RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. This appears to be the major source of income. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] during August, 1971; however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis or through the utilization of money orders. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE announced that the group had been successful in raising approximately $600 to date in contributions mainly through their efforts to arrange bail for the High Point Four. The High Point Four are four young BPP members who were arrested by the High Point Police Department following a shoot-out wherein one High Point Police Officer was wounded. The BPP was successful in arranging for bond for the youngest member of the High Point Four, LARRY MEDLEY, by posting a $4,000 cash bond. On 8/27/71, [REDACTED] that he had determined the $4,000 check used to post bond for MEDLEY was signed by the American Civil Liberties Union Attorney NEIL HIRSCHBURY of Chapel Hill, N. C. This cash bond was received from an anonymous donor with the agreement that the BPP would reimburse the donor following completion of prosecution.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP, in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. As of 9/1/71, [REDACTED]

No estimate could be made of unsold newspapers or the personal expenses of the members. Informants continue to report that the group is in bad financial condition and one source has reported that the Winston-Salem chapter has requested the California Headquarters permit them to retain a part or all of the profits from the sales of newspapers. This source has not yet determined whether headquarters has agreed to this request.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 9/18/71

Attached relates that last night (9/17/71) SA David B. Martin, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Resident Agency, was subpoenaed by the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office to appear in local superior court, Winston-Salem, at 9:30 am, 9/20/71 (Monday), as defense witness for local BPP leaders. Defendants to be tried concerning charges of theft of meat truck which ended with shoot-out with Winston-Salem police. Testimony desired of SA Martin is unknown since he was only an observer to exchange of gunfire. Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) Cameron stated he would contact U.S. Attorney, Middle District of North Carolina, and consider requiring cause for testimony prior to SA Martin's appearance. Defense attorney in case is believed engaging in delaying tactics and/or attempting to "try the system" and has subpoenaed other local police authorities as witnesses for the defense.

In view of above, Charlotte is being instructed to advise AUSA Cameron that Bureau feels cause for testimony should be required. This action has been coordinated with Office of Legal Counsel.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that the Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of the BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The major activities of the BPP group at Winston-Salem, N. C., and their affiliated group at High Point, N. C., appear to be their concern of various charges against the BPP leadership whose cases have not gone to trial. In addition, both groups have been working diligently in an effort to raise bond money for the "High Point Four", and to use their forthcoming trial as a rallying point to gain public support. BPP members were successful in raising bond money for one of the "High Point Four"; however, they have been unsuccessful in raising sufficient money to bond out any of the other three who are still awaiting trial.

BPP members at Winston-Salem have continued their work in fixing up their new headquarters which has been painted a bright blue. A large hand-painted sign has been erected in the front yard identifying this residence as the headquarters of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP. There has been no confrontation between the BPP and police and the group appears to be actively promoting their newly adopted "community image", and have been sprucing-up their personal dress as well as the appearance of their headquarters.

Re San Francisco airtel to Bureau, 7/27/71.

Re San Francisco airtel sets forth information from [REDACTED] a highly confidential source, reflecting that [REDACTED] had received papers regarding some property owned by HAZEL RAMIREZ (phonetic) in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Referenced airtel suggested that HAZEL RAMIREZ may be affiliated with the BPP in Winston-Salem, N. C., and connected with some property in Winston-Salem. It was also suggested that the papers relating to this property had been forwarded to BPP National Headquarters at Oakland, California, for possible transfer of ownership to Stronghold Consolidated Productions, Inc. Investigation at Winston-Salem, N. C., has not identified an individual named HAZEL RAMIREZ connected with the BPP in Winston-Salem, N. C. It is suggested, however, that the information from [REDACTED] pertains to the new BPP Headquarters at Winston-Salem, N. C., located at 1333 Patterson Ave. This house was purchased under a lease purchase agreement with a $500 cash down payment and monthly rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house at the option of the buyer. This property was acquired in the name of HAZEL MACK and LEE FAYE MACK, however, they do not reside at the Patterson address.

The BPP held an open house on Sunday, 8/22/71, and announced that their new eight room headquarters was purchased from CLYDE W. MYERS. [REDACTED]

The new BPP Headquarters has been set up in a two-story residence at 1333 North Patterson Ave., in Winston-Salem, N. C., which was purchased by HAZEL LEE MACK and LEE FAYE MACK under a lease purchase agreement. The house was purchased with a $500 down payment and monthly rent of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house at the end of sixty months. The total purchase price for the house was $8,500. BPP members have been observed fixing up the house, painting, and making minor repairs. Members have discussed placing metal screens over the windows and sandbags inside the house, however, this has not been done to date. There has been no confrontation between the BPP and police and the group appears to be following their new adopted image for community service.

JOURNAL OF DOCUMENTATION

Contact has been maintained with Charlotte sources; however, no information has been received to date that a taped message from HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense, has been utilized in any public appearance in North Carolina. A rally called the 'Solidarity Rally for the "High Point Four" was held on 7/25/71, in High Point, N. C. LARRY LITTLE made a press release prior to this rally in which he predicted 2,000 persons would attend this rally whose purpose was to obtain moral and financial support for the four young Blacks who were awaiting trial following their arrests at BPP Headquarters in High Point, N. C., where a policeman was seriously wounded. Approximately 200 people were in attendance at the rally, and LARRY LITTLE made the welcoming address; however, no comment was made regarding a message from NEWTON. Due to motions by Defense Attorneys, a definite trial date has not been fixed for the "High Point Four". Charlotte sources will be alerted for the utilization of any statement by NEWTON in behalf of the "High Point Four".
